Lamp lighting by Hon'ble Director & Faculty members

To further commemorate the glorious 75 years of independence another cultural programme was organized on 10th of August. The programme got underway at 2:00 p.m. with the lighting of a lamp by the Director of Centre along with faculty members. Followed by this everyone with great vigor proudly sung the national anthem to formally begin the event.

The programme was set in motion by an exceptional recital of self-composed poems by students on the themes of patriotism and the spirit of India. This was complemented by a comprehensive yet insightful presentations from faculty members. To further cheer up the moment, a couple of cultural performances consisting of a beautiful dance performance on "Maa Tujhe Salaam" and a melodious music performance of patriotic songs were held. A student presentation on "interesting facts about India ". The event ended with an exuberant recitation of poem Rabindranath Tagore's 'Chitto Jetha Bhayshunyo'/'Where the Mind is Without Fear' by Hon'ble Director in Hindi and in Bengali by another professor. After the event treats were handed out to everyone in the audience. As Mahatma Gandhi once said "Our ability to reach unity in diversity will be the beauty and the test of our civilization", similarly a key feature of programme was the diversity it exhibited be it in terms language, dresses, art forms, cultural background or speeches by students and faculty members. The event formally ended at 4:00 pm, with the room echoing the chants of "Vande Mataram" and "Jai Hind".
